

FAQ List for Technology Applications Certification
 October 21, 2003
 CTR Meeting

What are the certification areas?	How do I get certified?	Is the certification required?	Approved State Programs
Elementary School Teachers Technology Applications EC-12	Certification by examination available Fall 2004 or completion of required course work for emergency certification	No, certification is not required. This is a specialization area only for elementary. Technology Applications can be taught by any certified classroom teacher at the elementary level.	Region 20
Middle School Teachers Technology Applications 6-8	Certification by examination for EC-12 available Fall 2003 or completion of course work for emergency certification	No, certification is not required for middle school. Any teacher approved by the principal may teach technology applications at the Middle School Level. EC-12 certification is a specialty area only.	Region 20
High School Teachers Technology Applications 8-12	Certification by examination available Fall 2004 or completion of required course work for emergency certification Grandfather certification granted to any teacher teaching a secondary technology applications course prior to the 2003-2004 school year. Anyone assigned during 2003-2004 are required to certify.	Yes, Certification is required for any teacher teaching a secondary technology applications course to include: Multimedia, Video Technology, Web Mastering, Digital Graphics and Animation, Desktop Publishing, and Independent Study Applications	Region 20 Our Lady of the Lake University UTSA
Computer Science	Certification in CIS prior to 2003-2004 or completion of Computer Science Certification Examination.	Yes, certification is required. Teachers must hold a CIS certification or a new Computer Science Certificate
Master Teacher Technology	Certification by completion of required course work and the completion of the state certification examination.	Not required at this time. Certification for teacher trainer at the Campus Level. This certification does not qualify one to teach Technology Applications	Our Lady of the Lake Region 04 Region 11 Texas A&M University University of North Texas Houston ISD Frenship ISD University of Texas at El Paso

